

Sarah (Sally) H. Chandler

Sarah (Sally) Chandler, 87, a lifelong resident of Duxbury, passed away at home on August 19. Mrs. Chandler, a homemaker, was born in Boston to Robert and Eleanor (Lynott) Hackett. Mrs. Chandler attended Dana Hall School in Wellesley and Connecticut College. She married Howard (Bud) Chandler in 1949 and together they raised seven children. Predeceased by Mr. Chandler in 2010, Mrs. Chandler leaves daughter and son-in-law Martha C. Ferris and Charles F. Ferris; son and daughter-in-law Bradford W. Chandler Joanne H. Chandler; son and daughter-in-law H. Proctor Chandler and Jill D. Chandler; son and daughter-in-law Robert P. Chandler and Miriam R. Chandler; daughter Laura Phipps Chandler; son and daughter-in-law George E. Chandler and Robin H. Chandler; son William G. Chandler; 12 grand children and two great-grandchildren.

An avid golfer and curler, Mrs. Chandler was a past director of the United States Curling Association and the Duxbury Yacht Club.

Mrs. Chandler was buried in Newton Cemetery following a private ceremony and gathering of family and beloved friends.

